Code of Conduct

For KISS Theatre Company

Kiss Theatre Company is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its students and staff members. We are bully-free zone for all children. At KISS, we believe that it is important that members, directors, staff and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, students are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the workshop with any of the staff or administrators at KISS Theatre Company.

As a member of KISS Theatre Company, you are expected to abide by the following junior code of practice:

KISS Kids are expected to:

- Be loyal and give their friends a second chance.
- Be friendly and welcoming to new members. Honor our ensemble team spirit.
- Be supportive, respectful and committed to other cast members, offer comfort when required.
- Show appropriate loyalty and be gracious during casting.
- Wear suitable rehearsal shoes and clothing.
- Keep within the defined boundary of the rehearsal area.
- Take care of rehearsal and performance spaces and equipment. Keep our theatre home tidy.
- Behave and listen to all instructions from the staff.
- Not get involved in inappropriate peer pressure and don't push others into something they do not want to do. Refrain from bullying or persistent-use teasing.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants, regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background or religious beliefs or sexual identity.
- Refrain from the use of bad language or racial/sectarian references. This includes bullying using new technologies like social media or texting.
- Challenge or report the bullying of your peers.

- Understand that no drugs or alcohol are allowed at any of the rehearsal or performance locations, at any time. If KISS students or staff members do not obey these rules, they will be immediately dismissed from the workshop.
- Report inappropriate behavior or risky situations to the staff or Artistic Director.

KISS Kids have the right to:

- Be heard.
- Be respected and treated fairly.
- Be safe and happy in their chosen activity.
- Their privacy.
- Enjoy their rehearsal in a safe environment.
- Participate on an equal basis, appropriate to their abilities.
- Ask for help.

Any misdemeanors and general misbehavior will be addressed by the immediate Director and reported verbally to the Artistic Director. Persistent misbehavior will result in dismissal from the theatre workshop. Parents will be informed at all stages. Dismissals can be appealed by the Director with final decisions taken by Artistic Director or referred to the Board of Directors.
